FUND MANAGER'S REPORT

With the endorsement of the US budget blueprint by the House, optimism towards US President Donald Trump's US tax reform plans have bumped up significantly overshadowing a hurricane ravaged month in September. The Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) kept rates unchanged, maintaining expectations of a December rate hike while market learnt of US Federal Reserve chairperson Janet Yellen's replacement in February 2018 by Jerome Powell.

In Malaysia September data showed foreign holdings of Malaysian debts returned to our shores breaking a 3 month-decline with +RM9.3 billion inflows. 2018 budget was also announced with a slight decline in 2018 Gross Domestic Product (GDP) forecast of 5.0%-5.5% against this year's expected 5.2%-5.7% while keeping to the promise of fiscal consolidation which is expected to fall to 2.8% from 3.0%.
