FUND MANAGER'S REPORT

A tit-for-tat threat of a trade war continue to build in April with up to 25.0% tariffs to be imposed by China on USD50billion worth of imports from the US including soy products which was replied by US President Donald Trump with tariffs on a further USD100billion worth of goods. Notably, benchmark 10-year US Treasuries broke north of 3.0% level towards end of month as Federal Reserve signals for a gradual 3 to 4 rate hikes for the year on stronger global growth while March's core inflation picked up to 2.1%. Trade war rhetoric has since simmered down.

Parliament was dissolved on 7th April 2018 paving the way for 14th Malaysian General Elections on 9th May 2018. Malaysian Government Securities (MGS) yields rose along with hawkish US Treasuries up 20 basis points before lower inflation data quelled the bears.
