FUND'S PERFORMANCE COMPARED TO BENCHMARK

FUND MANAGER'S REPORT

With increasing doubts as to the ability of US President Donald Trump to push through his reform agenda coupled with easing inflation in June (at 1.60%, it is the fourth consecutive month of decline), benchmark US ten year Treasury languishes to a similar close to previous month at 2.30%, unable to break towards this year's high of 2.62%. With the healthcare bill in tatters, staffers in somewhat disarray, the US risk losing its influence in the world be it geopolitics or economics.

With inflation declining further to 3.60%, Bank Negara Malaysia (BNM) struck an upbeat tone towards our economy while keeping the Overnight Policy Rate (OPR) unchanged at 3.00%. Foreign inflows into debt markets took a breather registering a small outflow of RM0.4 billion.
