FUND MANAGER'S REPORT

The FBM KLCI gained 3.7% to close at 1,725 points in July. The broader market FBM Emas Index advanced 3.0% to 12,752 points, while the FBM Small Cap Index increased 2.0% to 15,707 points in the same period.

Foreign investors were net buyers in July, recording net inflows of RM264 million (June 2026: net outflows of RM2.4 billion). The FBM KLCI recorded its strongest monthly performance of the year, supported by improving domestic macroeconomic fundamentals, a return of foreign net buying and encouraging early corporate earnings. Sentiment was further lifted by Malaysia's stronger-than-expected 2Q26 advance GDP growth of 5.8% YoY.

The combination of a resilient Q2 GDP print, a stable policy rate, and the return of foreign buying, even if still selective, supports our constructive medium-term view, while the fragility of the Iran ceasefire warrants continued caution on near-term positioning.

Portfolios remain anchored in domestic recovery sectors, including construction, healthcare and utilities, while selectively allocating to long-term structural growth themes such as AI, semiconductors, and data centres. The fund has also locked in partial profits and rotated into large-cap names during periods of market weakness. Meanwhile, a healthy cash position is maintained to capitalise on opportunities in fundamentally strong companies when opportunities arise. Valuations remain compelling, with the FBM KLCI trading at ~14x PER, still below its long-term average.

DISCLAIMER

Based on the Fund's portfolio returns as at 30 June 2026, the Volatility Factor (VF) for this Fund is 13.5 and is classified as "High" (source: Lipper). "High" includes funds with VF that are above 11.915 but not more than 16.495. The VF means there is a possibility for the Fund in generating an upside return or downside return around this VF. The Volatility Class (VC) is assigned by Lipper based on quintile ranks of VF for qualified funds. VF is subject to monthly revision and VC will be revised every six months. The Fund's portfolio may have changed since this date and there is no guarantee that the Fund will continue to have the same VF or VC in the future. Presently, only funds launched in the market for at least 36 months will display the VF and its VC.
