FUND MANAGER'S REPORT

The Federal Reserve ("Fed") delivered a 25 basis points (bps) rate cut for the first time in 2025 lowering the target range to 4.00%–4.25%, as concerns intensified over slowing labour market and moderate economic growth. Unemployment rose to 4.3%, a near four-year high, while payrolls grew by just 22,000 jobs. US Treasury ("UST") yields were mixed, with shorter tenors declining but the 10Y UST edged higher as markets weighed on lingering inflation, suggesting the cut was more of an "insurance" move than a policy shift. Meanwhile in China, factory activity stayed weak as soft domestic demand and US-China trade tensions weighed on growth, prompting policymakers to roll out consumer loan subsidies and boost exports to emerging markets.

In Malaysia, labour market remained resilient with unemployment data held steady at 3.0%. Producer Price Index fell for the 6th consecutive month in August (-2.8% YoY) while Consumer Price Index increased slightly from 1.2% YoY to 1.3% YoY in August. These supported Bank Negara Malaysia's ("BNM") decision to keep the Overnight Policy Rate ("OPR") unchanged at 2.75%. Government bond yields were broadly stable in September, with the 10Y Malaysian Government Securities ending the month at 3.46%. Demand also held up, as the reopening of the 3Y Islamic Government Securities drew a solid bid-to-cover ratio of 2.88x. Resilient domestic demand and moderate inflation will continue to support economic growth though sentiments remain cautious. We expect OPR stay on hold in the coming month.
